LARGE CROWD AT SERVICES

Annual Union Lodge Decoration Day is Duely Observed.

Splendid Address by Rev. W. J. Russell—Many Brethren in Line.

One of the largest crowds that ever assembled at East Hill cemetery was present at the Decoration services held by four of the city's lodges, Sunday afternoon. During the forenoon, a down-pour of rain led those in charge of the services, to believe that it would be necessary to hold the speaking in the opera house and they made arrangements to that effect. About ten o'clock, however, the sky cleared and a burning hot sun quickly dried the streets and invited the people out of doors. It was too late, however, for the program to be changed back to that originally arranged, so the exercises were held at the opera house.

At 1:30 the four lodges, the Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias, Modern Woodmen and Red Men, formed in line in the order named, together with the decorating committee and the speaker's carriage, and headed by the Rushville band marched eastward to the cemetery where the graves were decorated by the committee. The lodges then formed in line and returned to the city headed by the band. About four hundred brethren were in line. The procession, on its return, marched directly to the opera house.

Many of the people had not learned of the change in the program and consequently the attendance at the speaking was not as large as it otherwise would have been. The number of people present, nevertheless, was quite large.

The band played two pieces while the members of the different orders and their friends were being seated, after which J. Q. Thomas, who presided at the meeting, introduced Rev. W. J. Russell, the orator of the day, to his hearers. Rev. Russell, who is at present pastor of the Christian church at Frankfort, was formerly pastor of the Main Street Christian church in this city. Therefore he is well known here and his audience, Sunday afternoon, greeted him as an old associate and friend.

Rev. Russell's address was pronounced by many of those present as one of the best ever delivered here on an occasion of this kind.

The speaker made an eloquent plea for the spirit of true Americanism among members of these fraternal orders. He said that in the question of the elimination of bossism in politics and the control and regulation of trusts the fraternal orders of the country and people at large have as great an objection to strike for as did the abolitionists in the days of slavery. Rev. Russell brought his hearers to a clear understanding of what the word fraternalism means. He gave a short history of the word, its origin and the development of that for which it stands. He declared that Christ himself set the first example of fraternalism during his ministry upon earth. He said fraternalism was developed in the home that, in fact, it had its basis there, and that it stands for true brotherhood, out of which grows love for the dependent and respect for the dead.

The annual custom of decorating the graves with flowers, he said, was consequently a natural result. This custom is in vogue throughout all the nations and the speaker gave the manner in which the dead now and have been remembered in the past. The Egyptians were perhaps the most devout in their remembrance of the dead. They erected pyramids in honor of the kings at their bidding before their death. These pyramids, together with many of their superb monuments are still standing. The Romans and Athenians too were great builders of monuments and were great people to decorate the tombs and graves of the dead with flowers whose silent but fragrant voice spoke louder than words of the memory of the loved ones who had gone before.

The countries of today, Rev. Russell declared, are but following the customs of the ancient ones. The spirit of true fraternalism is rapidly spreading among the people and the memories of those who have gone before serve to make all nobler and better.

The address lasted for about an hour. During that time the closest attention was given the speaker and it was very evident that his hearers were profoundly impressed. Rev. Russell closed his address by reciting some verses from the pen of Will Carleton, which were very beautiful and appropriate.

The address was eloquent. It was a stirring appeal to the true patriotism and spirit of brotherhood in the heart of the citizen, and it received the highest commendation from the members of the different orders and those others who attended.

BAD RUNAWAY AT NOON TODAY

Horse Owned by Elijah Kirkpatrick Becomes Frightened at Traction Car.

A black pony belonging to Elijah Kirkpatrick became frightened at an approaching traction car at noon today while standing at the side door of the H. H. Furnishing company's store and ran away.

Mr. Kirkpatrick and John T. Kirkpatrick were preparing to enter the buggy to drive to dinner, when the mare suddenly caught sight of the 12 o'clock west bound car and whirled about and darted west on Third street before she could be stopped. The horse turned south on Morgan street and crossed the sidewalk and lawn in front of Dr. D. Van Osdel's office. Turning into the street, she ran south on Morgan to Second, where she turned west. She ran into the curb on the south side of the street and fell, but was seized by Windy Morgan and prevented from running farther. The animal ran the end of one of the shafts into one of her heels, making an ugly wound. The harness was broken and the buggy partially smashed. Beyond this no damage was done.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR VISIT COLUMBUS

Local Commandery Royally Entertained by the Templars in That City.

Rushville Commandery No. 45, Knights Templar went to Columbus Sunday, where it visited the Columbus Commandery and attended the Ascension day exercises at the M. E. church. Rev. George David Wolfe preached the sermon. Forty-one of the local Knights made the trip. At noon a banquet was spread and a number of toasts were given. Judge Will Sparks responded in behalf of the local Commandery. About one hundred and twenty-five attended the banquet which was held in the commandery banquet room. In the afternoon the visitors were entertained with a trolley and an automobile ride besides a fine musical entertainment.

—Frank Lyons spent Sunday the guest of friends in Connorsville.

—Perry Carr left today on a trip business to Jay county, where he has oil interests.

—William Stanley will accompany Owen L. Carr to his cattle ranch near Fort Worth, Texas tomorrow. They will stay about ten days and on their return will bring with them a large number of sheep, cattle and horses.

—Dick Wilson came home from Port Henry, New York, Saturday and spent Sunday with his family on North Perkins street. Mr. Wilson has charge of one of the finest stables in the country at Port Henry, and has a large number of fast horses. He is well pleased with his work.

VERY LARGE COLLECTION

Sunday School and Christian Church Gives $312.65 to Foreign Missions.

Splendid Exercises in Observation of Children's Day—A Large Attendance.

Last night at the Main Street Christian church both the auditorium and the Sunday school room were crowded, and chairs had to be placed in the aisles to accommodate the people. The crowd was estimated at about 1000 people. George E. Moore had charge of the decorations, which were very beautiful and consisted of cut flowers, palms and potted plants.

The program was in charge of a committee consisting of Miss Mayme Kemp, chairman, and Misses Alice Norris, Nellie Retherford, Florence Frazee and Bertha Megee. The names of the last two young ladies were omitted in the announcement last night, but they rendered excellent service, and had full charge of the Sunshine Band and Handkerchief Drill. The program for the exercises follows:

An offering of $10.65 was taken, making the total collection of the day $312.65—the largest collection for a similar purpose ever taken in a Rushville church.

On account of the remarkable successes of the day, arrangements have been made for a jubilee to take place on next Sunday. Corresponding secretary, F. M. Pains of the National Missionary Society, will come from Cincinnati to be present at the event. The national officers of the C. W. B. M. will also be present.

WENT OVER AN EMBANKMENT

Rushville People Bruised in a Runaway Accident Near Gwynneville.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hendrix and Jesse Ash, of this city, while driving near Gwynneville, Sunday afternoon met with a runaway accident that came near resulting seriously.

The horse which they were driving scared at a plow standing in a field and plunged down an embankment at the side of the road. The buggy was overturned and the occupants thrown to the ground. All were badly bruised but fortunately, escaped serious injury. The top of the buggy was torn off and it was otherwise damaged. The horse broke away and ran up the road for a distance, but it was finally found.

DANGERS OF KISSING

Tuberculosis Said to be Lurking Behind the Kiss.—Physician's Theory

Indianapolis Star Saturday.

The subject of tuberculosis received practically the entire attention of the city and town health officers in convention Friday. During the morning session Dr. W. T. S. Dodds of this city, read a paper on "Early Diagnosis of Tuberculosis." He strongly advised early and thorough examination of cases suspected of being tuberculosis. Physicians should not wait until bacilli appear in the sputum, he said, as at that stage the disease may be far advanced.

Dr. Joseph McFarland, of Philadelphia, in a lecture on "Prevention of Tuberculosis," pointed out that there are dangers of the transmission of the disease in "promiscuous kissing." "Promiscuous kissing is dangerous," he said. "So is promiscuous spitting." He was glad, he said, that many Indiana cities have ordinances against spitting on sidewalks, but governmental action should be carried still farther. He made no reference to laws against promiscuous kissing.

MAY WAS A VERY RAINY MONTH

Was Wetter Than the Average—Temperature Was Unusual.

The monthly meteorological report of the weather bureau for May shows that there was 5.47 inches of precipitation last month. This was more than for any May since 1900, when there was 6.14 inches of precipitation. The heaviest precipitation during any of the last thirty-five Mays was 8.33 inches, in 1902. The average precipitation for the last thirty-five Mays was 4.05 inches. The greatest rainfall during any twenty-four consecutive hours last month was 1.95 inches, on May 11th.

The average temperature last month was 63, just the same as the average temperature for the last thirty-five Mays. The highest temperature last month was 85, on the 11th; the lowest was 41, on the 1st; the greatest daily range was thirty-three degrees, on the 10th, and the least daily range was eight degrees, on the 25th.

The mean atmospheric pressure during the month was 29.96; the highest was 30.28, on the 1st and the lowest was 29.63, on the 17th. The prevailing direction of the wind last month was south; the average hourly velocity was 11.1 miles and the maximum velocity was 48, from the south, on the 30th. During the month there were six clear days, eleven partly cloudy days and fourteen cloudy days. There were thunderstorms on May 4, 8, 10, 11, 14, 15, 29, and 30th.

FRANKFORT IS SHUT OUT

Johnny McCord Hands up Another Dish of Gilt Edged Twirling.

Gillis Also Pitched Good Ball But Hits Win For Rushville.

Now then, if Rushville isn't in a shape to meet Connorsville, having defeated the strongest semi-professional team in the State and shut them out at that, she never will be. Connorsville is next, providing that she does not back down.

To the crowd of six hundred loyal fans who witnessed the game yesterday, the victory looked about as good as ice cream candy does to the small boy at a county fair.

Johnny McCord was sent to the firing line and the way the little southpaw, dished up the goose eggs was certainly satisfactory to all concerned. At no time did the visitors have a look in. They were unable to hit to any purpose for when they did land on the ball it was seized upon by the men behind McCord and turned to their advantage.

The game was very fast considering the slippery condition of the ground, due to the rain of the early morning, and the work of the local team was exceptionally brilliant. Wagner made a great bare-handed catch of Crandall's two base drive to right field, in the second inning. Little Joe Herold stopped all kinds of hot ones at third and McClellan at second, distinguished himself by remarkably fast fielding and good work at bat. Windy's cheery voice was heard all through the game, encouraging the team and coaching the base-runners. Windy caught a splendid game and was there with the stick.

McCord pitched the best game that he has pitched since being a member of the local twirling staff. Bush, Wagner and McCord each drove the ball for two bases. Both teams played the game, sacrificing at the proper time, but Rushville was better able to bunch her hits. Gillis pitched out of several bad hits with Rushville men on third and second, thereby saving his team from a worse defeat. McCord also pitched out of several bad holes.

The Frankfort boys are gentlemen through and through. There was no display of rowdyism in any form. Umpire Tompkins, umpired a nice game.

The local team scored one run in the first inning and two in the second. In the first, Bush, the first man up, was given a base on balls; McClellan advanced him to second with a hit through Hayworth, and Morgan followed suit. The bases were full and there was no one out. Wagner sacrificed, scoring Bush, and advancing McClellan to third and Morgan to second. Weaver failed to connect with the ball and Taylor went out, Gillis to Pierson, McClellan and Morgan dying on base.

In the second, Herold, who was first up, struck out. Kiser was presented with a base on balls, and McCord advanced him to third with a two base hit to right field. Both men scored on Bush's screaming double to the same locality. McClellan, however, struck out and Wagner flew out to Crandall.

AUTOMOBILISTS' LIABILITY

Supreme Court's Decision is a Case From Fountain County.

The following decision was given in a case before the Indiana Supreme court Thursday:

20612. Indian Springs Company et al. vs. Brown, Fountain C. C. Affirmed. Hadley J. The undoubted right of operating an automobile on the public highways is subject to the duty of its driver to take into account the tendency of the appearance, noises and velocity of such a vehicle to frighten horses unused thereto, and to so operate his machine as to cause no unnecessary damage. And where a horse driven on the highways shows fright at meeting an automobile, and the autoist disregards that fact, he will be liable to the person driving the horse for injuries proximately caused by such fright which could have been averted by stopping or checking the machine after the autoist was aware that the horse was frightened.

RUSH-FAYETTE ASSOCIATION

Will Hold Its Annual Picnic at Indianapolis on Next Sunday.

Rushville and Rush county has quite a large colony at Indianapolis. All those who moved there from Rush and Fayette counties formed an association, called the Rush and Fayette County Association, of which Carey Jackson is president, and Mrs. Olive E. McGrew is secretary. The association will hold its seventh annual meeting at Brookside Park, Indianapolis, on next Sunday, June 11th, 1905. Rev. J. W. Allen, who resided and preached in both Rush and Fayette counties, will deliver an address. Friends of the Rush and Fayette county colony at Indianapolis are welcome and invited to come, spend the day, meet old friends and talk over old times.

ALLIGATOR FARMS

Hatching alligators is the latest use to which incubators have been put. Beginning with chickens, ducks, geese and turkeys, the use of incubators was extended to ostriches and babies, and now a manager of an alligator farm in Kansas has adopted the use of incubators there.

An alligator is in its propagating habits between a fish and a hen. It swims in the water like a fish and lays eggs, but instead of laying them in the water it goes out of the water and makes a nest like a hen. In the nest it lays twenty-five or thirty eggs and then trusts to the warm weather to hatch them out. The period of the incubation of alligator eggs is not accurately known, but it approximates five weeks, or a fortnight longer than chicken eggs, or a week longer than duck eggs.

Most of the alligators hatched at alligator farms are sold in infancy for $1.00 apiece to visitors from the north. As many alligators are raised to maturity as the enclosed swamp and streams of the alligator farm will permit. They are valuable for their hides, which are used for bags, belts, purses, and like purposes.

The supply of alligators is much less than the demand, as the hide-hunters have killed off all they can find, and yet there is no closed reason in the game laws for their protection. Like the terrapin they are becoming extinct in their wild state. At the alligator farm, no more old alligators are kept than are needed for breeding purposes. Most of them are sold when a month or six weeks old and the others are killed at an early age, when their hides are the more pliable and easy worked. Alligators farming, so far, has proved a profitable industry.

CHURCH NEWS

UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Special music was furnished at last night's service by a sextette, composed of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Pugh, Miss Inez Abbott, Miss Orma Innis, Miss Martha Hogsett and Prof. T. A. Craig. The selections rendered were, "Lead Kindly Light," "Oh, How Excellent," and "By the Rivers of Babylon."

MAIN STREET CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Rev. J. W. Russell, pastor of the Christian church of Frankfort, Indiana, delivered a fine address to the congregation yesterday morning on the subject "Aud His Name Shall be Called Wonderful."

The young people of Dr. Gilbert's and Rev. Sniff's classes gave an ice cream social on the court house lawn Saturday evening at which they took in about $27.

The Sunday school's children's day offering for foreign missions, which was taken at the church yesterday, was $302. The Young Men's Circle gave $63, Dr. Gilbert's class $57, and Mr. Wyatt's, $52. This offering taken together with the March church offering, makes the church a living-link church, indicating that it supports its own missionary in the foreign field. Since the C. W. B. M. supports its own missionary, the church is entirely supporting two missionaries in the foreign field. This work is really remarkable, and deserves great commendation.

SECOND M. E. CHURCH.

Everyone is invited to attend a recital to be given at the tabernacle tonight by Rev. T. L. Wilson. After the entertainment the Silver Leaf and Gold Leaf clubs will furnish refreshments.

—The ladies of the Glenwood U. P. church will give a strawberry and ice cream social at the church on Friday, June 9th.

—The Sunday school of Big Flatrock church, east of Gowdy, will have children's day services, "Brightening the World," on Sunday night, June 18th.

DIES AT HOME NEAR SEXTON

Mrs. James B. Kirkpatrick Goes to Her Reward Sunday Afternoon.

Mrs. Malinda Kirkpatrick, wife of John B. Kirkpatrick, and one of the most highly respected women in the county, died at 5 o'clock Sunday evening at her home about a mile west of Sexton. Death was due to heart trouble. Mrs. Kirkpatrick had been a sufferer for many years and through it all maintained a kind and cheerful disposition. She was the mother of a large family and leaves several adult children. The funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Blue River church, conducted by Rev. Hall, of Carthage. The burial will be in the church cemetery.

MEN ARE HELPLESS AS CHILDREN

When Taken Suddenly Ill—Here Is a Common-Sense Safeguard.

Big, strong man is as helpless infant when he is suddenly ill.

The sturdiest chap in town usually loses his self control, and is utterly unable to regard his condition with the common sense that characterizes his every-day actions.

For example: He comes home tired, eats a heavy dinner and sits down to read and smoke away a quiet evening.

Suddenly he notices a weight on his stomach; then sharp pains around his heart, and a feeling of suffocation. Thoughts of "heart disease" rush over him, and in his agony he fears the worst.

The family doctor is summoned, and after a careful examination leaves a medicine that brings relief.

In a day or two the man is about his business, weak and still unrecovered from the effects of the pain and the shock to his nervous system.

His trouble was acute indigestion, brought on by overloading his tired stomach.

A couple of REXALL DYSPEPSIA TABLETS would have given him instant relief—would have saved him hours of suffering and the cost of a prescription.

A wise man should prepare for such emergencies.

Carry a package of REXALL DYSPEPSIA TABLETS in your vest pocket or keep them in your room. Take one after each heavy meal, and indigestion can never bother you.

REXALL DYSPEPSIA TABLETS cure stomach troubles by supplying the element, the absence of which in the gastric juices, causes indigestion and dyspepsia. They enable the stomach to digest all kinds of food and to quickly convert it into rich, red blood.

Perhaps Count Cassini don't know yet Russia is licked.

Alcohol can be made and sold cheaper than gasoline for fuel and lighting. In Europe it is used to run engines and automobiles. Alcohol would undoubtedly be used in this country even to a greater extent than it is in Europe if such was not prevented by the enormous internal revenue tax of $2.07 per gallon. The immediate removal of this excessive tax would be a benefit to the whole country, and the manufacturers are conducting a campaign of education with the view of inducing Congress to enact the necessary legislation early in the next session. Farmers ought to be especially interested in this matter. Alcohol is made from firm products—corn, potatoes, beet sugar refuse, etc.—and cheaper alcohol would give them new markets as well as furnish them a modern system of heating and lighting. The alcohol used in Europe for fuel, light and manufacturing purposes generally is denatured—that is made unfit for beverage consumption by the mixture of noxious substances. Congress certainly ought to take some action in this matter as the people of the United States are deprived of one of the most useful substances for power, fuel and light.

POLITICAL GOSSIP

The Re-election of Chairman Goodrich Seems Assured.

Indianapolis, June 5.—The statement is made by Congressman Watson of the Sixth district that James P. Goodrich of Winchester will be a candidate for re-election. He predicted Goodrich's re-election. Lately there has been a little talk among Vice President Fairbanks' lieutenants in favor of bringing out a new man for chairman who would have no trouble in being re-elected in 1908, when they would like to have political waters of this state unruffled. If they felt sure that Goodrich would stand as good a show of re-election then as now they would not hesitate in endorsing him, but not many of them are sanguine enough to believe that the party workers generally would stand for one man's leadership so long. This point was suggested to Watson, but he said that it would not have much weight. "Why not continue Goodrich at the head of the organization through the campaign of 1908?" he asked. "He is energetic, capable, experienced, and he has the time and money to permit him to do the work. Furthermore, he is not a candidate for any office. I think he could be re-elected in 1908 without much trouble." Among the party leaders the impression seems to be gaining ground that the governor is very anxious to have Goodrich continue as chairman. It is not disputed either that the governor is in position to wield considerable influence. One of the governor's close personal friends today declared that Goodrich will be re-elected.

Former Mayor Bookwalter in his race for renomination is again proving himself one of the best stump speakers in the state. He is very artful in his methods. He is evidently making his plea to the "common" people, as he is telling them in his speeches that the silk-stocking politicians and the ones who wear the shoulder-straps are for Stalnaker, while he is counting on the plain people. This appeal has set several of his meetings on fire with enthusiasm. He also added to his popularity with these men by stating that if he is elected mayor it will not be necessary to consult any party leader in order to reach him. If Bookwalter is not nominated it will be the first time in ten years that there has not been a personal campaign for the city offices. T. Taggart was elected mayor three times in succession because of his personal popularity. Bookwalter's following was personal rather than party. The workers can hardly recall when they were not in either a Taggart or a Bookwalter campaign. If Stalnaker and Holtzman are the opposing candidates party lines will be more closely drawn than they have been for a long time.

The local sporting fraternity is on the anxious seat lest Governor Hanly should stop pool selling at the running races at the state fairgrounds June 26 to July 8. The association has sold the privileges to a well-known firm of bookmakers, but it is said that the governor was not taken into consideration. He is strongly opposed to gambling of any kind, and it would not be surprising if he should step in at the eleventh hour and direct the sheriff to stop pool selling if Mayor Holtzman should not do it beforehand. This will be the first time that running races have been given on so large a scale in Indiana, but the meeting is not liable to be a success if pool-selling is barred.

Judge O. N. Heaton of the Allen county superior court is enjoying a vigorous boom for nomination for supreme court judge next year on the Republican ticket. Judge Heaton is the first Republican elected to the bench in Allen county for more than a quarter of a century. His success there encourages his friends in the belief that he will prove a winner in a broader field. Deputy Attorney General Geake, who resides at Ft. Wayne, said today that Judge Heaton will enter the race with practically the solid support of the northern half of the state. He figures he will have the Twelfth and Thirteenth districts solid, which will be a big factor if there are three or four candidates.

KENTUCKY FEUD

One Killed Six Wounded and More Trouble Is Looked For.

Lexington, Ky., June 5.—In a feud battle in Wolf county near Leo City, Sunday, one man was instantly killed and six wounded. The dead: Andrew Wilson, lumber dealer and farmer; wounded, Henry Freeman, Harland Dykes, James Dykes, John Allen, a merchant of Inakoe, Ky.; Letcher Davis and Lee Allene.

The battle was the sequel of a fight several weeks ago between Andrew Wilson and Green Patrick and Hiram and Peter Davis, when the latter were wounded. The men met at Grant Reed's "blind tiger" saloon, five miles east of Leo City, Sunday, and a clash between the principals was followed by a general battle. More trouble between the families and friends involved is expected.

Family Tragedy at Peoria.

Peoria, Ill., June 5.—Wenona Gillham, sixteen years old, shot and fatally wounded her father, yesterday, eighteen miles from this city. Gillham was abusing his daughter when his wife interfered. He dealt her a blow on the head with a club, knocking her senseless. The daughter then secured a shotgun and fired both barrels at her father, inflicting a mortal wound. Miss Gillham surrendered to the sheriff here.

SHOW YOUR PASS

Railroad Commission Issues a Stern Order to Railway Companies.

STATE OFFICIALS HIT

This Order Is For the Purpose of Finding Out What If Any Officials Ride Free.

Railway Companies Required to Furnish to the Commission a List of Passes.

Indianapolis, June 5.—Backed by Governor Hanly, the railway commission will attempt to prevent the use of railroad passes by public officials. An order has been entered requiring all railroad companies in the state to furnish the commission with a complete list showing all the free transportation outstanding June 1, 1905. This is in line with Governor Hanly's construction of the railway commission law by which he hopes to prevent public officials from using passes. The commission thus expects to have the names of all the officials who use free transportation. The lists will be used as the basis for prosecution if the railroads and officials refuse to live up to what the governor and the commission regard as the letter of the law. It is pointed out by those who are opposed to the governor's ideas that the legislature never meant to restrict the use of passes, or it would have enacted one of the anti-pass bills when it had a splendid opportunity. The anti-pass bills were regarded as a joke during the legislature, and many members thought they were giving the governor's pet hobby a black eye in killing them, but if the governor's construction of the commission is correct he has accomplished what he desires without them knowing what tremendous assistance they were rendering. Many prominent attorneys declare that if the governor's construction is correct, the law itself is unconstitutional in that it makes exceptions who may receive passes, and therefore that it is class legislation. Attorney General Miller has refused to discuss any feature of the matter.

OUTLINED HIS FATE

Strong Drink Forces Paroled "Lifer" Back to His Old Cell.

Goshen, Ind., June 5.—Living in hope until the last minute that Governor Hanly would give him another chance, Frank Cripe, the murderer of Michael Self here in 1882 and who was paroled in 1904, completely collapsed when Deputy Warden Garman of the Michigan City prison came after him to return him to the cell he occupied for twelve years, and where he may remain the remainder of his life. He violated his parole by indulgence in liquor. Cripe pleaded with his relatives and finally, when compelled to face the only alternative, broke down and wept like a little child. His sister, Mrs. Ida Cripe Miller, worked for many years to get his release. The two women who caused Cripe's return to prison are still in the Elkhart county jail. Cripe's fear is that he will never again have his liberty. Drink, he says, has outlined his fate.

He Left the Pennies.

Marion, Ind., June 5.—E. E. Lollar, who was appointed receiver for the Bank of Fowler, which closed its doors last Tuesday evening simultaneously with the disappearance of Geo. E. Hopkins, president and owner, Sunday entered the bank and found the keys and the combination to the safe. The safe was opened and $15.52, all in pennies, was found, although it was known that the deposits amounted to more than $4,000.

Well-Known Writer Killed.

Indianapolis, June 5.—E. Fenwick Colerick of Fort Wayne, a writer of note, and a member of a family well known in Allen county, and in other sections of the state, was struck by a streetcar at Illinois and Market streets. Colerick was thrown some twenty feet to one side of the street. His neck was broken. He was about seventy years old, and had been in Indianapolis for many years.

Wabash Claims Another.

Williamsport, Ind., June 5.—Merrill Swank, the fifteen-year-old son of Dr. W. M. Swank, was drowned in the Wabash river here. He and five other boys of about his own age had gone swimming when young Swank was seized with cramps and went down. Every effort of his companions to save him failed.

A Boy and a Gun.

Huntington, Ind., June 5.—Howard Arnold, seven years old, while handling a revolver, accidentally shot and instantly killed his sister Ethel, aged three. The sister lay asleep in her cradle when approached by the boy, who pointed the gun at her head and pulled the trigger.

Now in a Trustee's Hands.

Shelbyville, Ind., June 5.—The creditors of the Nading bank and the Nading family have selected Julius L. Showers as trustee of the estate, the latter turning all property, valued at $100,000, over to him to settle the indebtedness.

NO DISCORD

The Kaiser and Duchess Anastasia Are on Good Terms.

Berlin, June 5.—All the visiting princes and princesses dined with Emperor William and Empress Augusta Victoria Sunday night in honor of the Duchess Cecilia and the Crown

GRAND DUCHESS ANASTASIA.

Prince Frederick William, who are to be married tomorrow. Altogether 540 persons were present at the dinner, and included among the guests were cabinet ministers, generals and admirals. Duchess Cecilia made a remarkable personal impression on the guests. She was animated, cordial and unaffected. Emperor William took Grand Duchess Anastasia, mother of the bride-elect, to the table and by his attention to her quite disproved the stories of discord between them.

A NOISELESS BATTLE

Attack on Capital's Defenses Devoid of the Spectacular.

Washington, June 5.—Sixteen warships will attack the defenses of Washington and Baltimore at midnight, June 11, and continue their offensive operations for six days and nights. Meanwhile the fortresses along Chesapeake bay and the Potomac river, constituting the artillery districts of the Chesapeake, Washington and Baltimore, will put forth every defense of which they are capable. With it all the struggle is to be bloodless, practically noiseless, devoid of the spectacular and intensely interesting only to the army and navy experts who are playing the game and know the constructive effect of the unloaded mines and the empty shells. These exercises are to constitute the only joint operations of the army and navy during the year.

Shocking Ohio Tragedy.

Hillsboro, Ohio, June 5.—Three young persons, Madge Dines, aged fourteen; Nettie Hart, aged sixteen; and George Baldwin, aged eighteen, were found shot to death in an upper room in the home of Ed Dines, farmer, and father of Madge, three miles out of the city, late last night. The girls were slain with a revolver. The man's brains were blown out with a shotgun. The latter weapon was found in the room in which the bodies lay. The theory that the young man murdered the two girls and then committed suicide is not entertained, though certain circumstances point to that conclusion.

Wouldn't Accept Position.

Chicago, June 5.—Robert T. Lincoln of Chicago, who has been prominently mentioned as the selection of the combined forces of the two factions in the Equitable Life Assurance Society for the office of chairman of the board of directors of that organization, when asked if he would accept the position should it be tendered to him, said that under no circumstances would he accept the office.

COUNTY NEWS

Glenwood.

Mr. Chas. Andrews, a former resident of our vicinity, was here with Dr. Roy Elliott over Sabbath. Charles has not been back to the old stamping ground for 14 years. He seems in all respects to have been prospering. He is making his home in Ohio. But he still has a warm place in his heart for old Glenwood.

Mr. Claude Walton with three lady and two gentlemen friends called on his mother over the Sabbath.

Rev. R. P. Cooke preached at the usual time on Sabbath morning. The sermon was very forceful and earnest. The text was "Continue Thou in Good Works." After the regular sermon Mr. Cooke talked a while on the relation of pastor and members. His talk was very good, being plain and practical. Bro. Cooke commences his third year as pastor of the U. P. church. His two years of pastorate have been quite successful. Seventeen have been added to the church during his pastorate; over $1000 has been raised or about an average of $16 per member. The building fund is now $2420. The contract has been awarded to Mr. Miller, of Connersville. He began work yesterday. It is to be built out of cement blocks.

Rev. T. J. Anthony preached at the M. E. church on Sabbath afternoon. The subject was "The Soul's Picture Gallery." The sermon was quite a psychological treatise on the soul's faculties. He elaborated on the imagination in a very lucid manner.

We understand the school supply people find Mapes is not so easy as was understood in the beginning.

The ranks at church on Sabbath afternoon were very much depleted by those who desired to attend Decoration services at Falmouth and Rushville. Why not let the orders decorate with the old soldiers as Decoration Day is a holiday anyway. All orders should teach by practices and precept to remember the Sabbath day and keep it holy.

We understand Mr. Albert Shortridge has gotten home from Indianapolis where he was escorted by the U. S. Marshal. It takes experience to learn some people.

We believe that holidays to some people at least are a detriment, for some people regard Sunday as a holiday and you search statistics through and through and you will find that 9-10 of the accidents, crimes and misdemeanors take place in the forepart of the week or on Sunday. Of course there are many exceptions to this, but in the main it is true. Then in the light of this knowledge, why not keep Sunday sacred. There are many places to go where one can get a spiritual uplift and have character better equipped.

Our photographer is getting quite a lively business.

Children's day which was mentioned in last week's items, was a success financially. The contribution for the children's offering was $15. The primary class gave $7.45. Three of them are entitled to a membership in the League and to the souvenir scenes in China. The little folks deserve much credit for their energetic work in a good cause.

The old soldiers' decoration last Tuesday, the 30th, inst., was well attended and the memorial address delivered by Eld. J. C. Burkhardt, of Connersville, was appreciated by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Higley, of Shirley, Ind., came the fore part of last week for a short visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Higley, and Mrs. Margaret Bilby.

Mr. and Mrs. James Smiley, of Knightstown, attended the old soldiers' decoration. Mrs. Smiley remained over Sunday visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thrasher went to Indianapolis last Friday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Hester Manning. She was the mother of Miss Hattie Manning who taught school here several years ago.

Mrs. Arthur Jeffrey, of Rushville, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson and other relatives.

John Darnell lost a valuable cow last Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bell, of Mays, Ind., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Piper at dinner Sunday and attended the memorial services Sunday afternoon.

A very large audience attended the I. O. O. F. and the I. O. R. M. memorial service here Sunday. Rev. J. L. Brown, of Manilla, Ind., delivered an eloquent address to the orders. The singing by the double quartet was appreciated by all.

AN OLD GRAFT STILL SUCCESSFUL

A Smooth Individual is Operating in This State Selling Axle Grease for Corn Salve.

According to the Huntington Herald the old-time graft of selling axle grease for corn salve has again been sprung on the citizens of Huntington by a rather smooth individual, and was discovered by a mere chance.

A young man went to a grocery store of that city and inquired for axle grease. When asked by the clerk what brand he wanted the fellow replied, "Oh, any kind, just so it's yellow." He purchased two 10 cent boxes. When the same fellow called at the home of the groceryman, his daughter, who happened to be in the store when the axle grease was bought, recognized the fellow.

The stranger represented himself as a corn doctor and in an eloquent manner expounded the merits of his corn salve (?). After listening to his fluent and convincing speech for several minutes, the young lady announced to her mother that none of the "grease" would be desirable for "salve" purposes and the fellow was shown the door.

The alleged corn doctor had transferred the axle grease from the ten cent boxes into smaller boxes, which he attempted to sell for twenty-five cents each.

If this same smooth individual should appear in this city to work this graft, our readers will certainly know how to handle him.

THE TEAMS MAY GET TOGETHER

Manager Geraghty Writes a Letter to the Connersville Examiner.

Connersville Still Claims That We Tried to Rob Them—Games May be Played.

(Connersville Examiner, Saturday)

"Editor Examiner: I would like to play my base ball team a series of games with Connersville, under any conditions the Connersville management may name. I have July 2, 4, 9, 16 open. Would like to play the first game at Connersville in July and one later here, in August. I also agree to let Quinn umpire in Rushville as well as at Connersville."

JAMES GERAGHTY, Manager Rushville Ball Team. "The above letter was received this morning by the Examiner from Manager Geraghty, of the Rushville base ball team.

Mr. Geraghty seems to be honest in his efforts to bring the two teams together again, and it is really unfortunate for the management of both the teams that the circumstances have been such as to prevent their meeting up to this time.

The unfortunate affair last year which brought a stop to the future meeting of the two teams was in no wise the fault of Connersville. It was a great mistake on the part of the Rushville folks, and no doubt they have seen their error before this. It is to be hoped, now, that this animosity has worn off sufficiently to allow the arranging of a series of games between these neighboring teams, as no doubt it means money for both clubs.

The letter was shown to the manager of the local team and he said the matter was being considered. If can defeat Connersville on the square we'll have no kick, but the efforts to rob us was the cause of the trouble. Rushville was treated fairly when they played here and the manager of their team and the newspapers of that town so stated.

If they should be allowed to play here again they may expect nothing but a square deal."

The Examiner seems to think that Rushville, in asking a game with Connersville, gets down on her knees and begs forgiveness. Forgiveness for what? Have we done any wrong? Certainly not. There was no effort made here to rob Connersville. The visitors in that unfortunate game and not only the visitors but the home team as well, simply suffered through bad umpiring. An umpire is as liable to make honest mistakes as any one else. Manager Geraghty is perfectly willing to allow Connersville their own umpire, and seemingly, to give them the best of it in order to bring the two teams together. Surely Connersville cannot kick at this. As the Examiner says a series of games between Rushville and Connersville will undoubtedly prove a great money maker for both teams. The matter should be arranged as a matter of business if nothing else.

Crippled Russian Vessels Put In At Manila Bay.

WANT LEAVE TO REPAIR

Admiral Enquist With the Aurora, Oleg and Jemtschug Got Away From Jap Shells.

Admiral Train Appointed a Board to Investigate Condition of Cripples.

Manila, June 5.—Rear Admiral Enquist, who was commander of the heavy cruiser squadron of the Russian fleet, arrived in the bay at 9 o'clock Saturday evening on board his flagship, the protected cruiser Aurora, accompanied by the Oleg and Jemtschug.

REAR ADMIRAL ENQUIST, accompanied by the protected cruisers Oleg and Jemtschug. All the vessels were more or less damaged and there were many wounded men on board.

Rear Admiral Train at once appointed a board to investigate the condition of the Russian warships. This board reported that the Oleg will require sixty days, the Aurora thirty days and the Jemtschug seven days to effect repairs. Admiral Enquist has requested permission to repair here, saying that he would be unable to sail except in a smooth sea, on account of his vessels needing patching near the water line. Prince Potietian is among the 143 wounded Russians, fifty of whom were removed to the hospital here. The total of killed on the three vessels was seventy-one. Rear Admiral Enquist states that the greatest damage done to his ships was when the Japanese were firing at five mile range.

Rear Admiral Enquist, accompanied by Rear Admiral Train and the French consul, formally called on Governor General Wright this morning. After the usual greetings had been exchanged Governor Wright asked:

"Admiral Enquist, do you wish to stay at Manila permanently?"

Rear Admiral Enquist replied: "My ships are unseaworthy. I have not heard from my government, and I request time to make repairs." Governor Wright then said that according to his construction of the neutrality laws the Russian vessels could remain long enough to make necessary repairs, and after these were finished they must leave within twenty-four hours or dismantle and intern.

Admiral Enquist requested permission to bring his ships behind the breakwater for repairs. This request was granted him, and the ships will be moved Tuesday morning.

Narita Goro, the Japanese consul, called upon Governor Wright just previous to Admiral Enquist and made inquiry regarding the probable disposition of the Russian warships. On leaving he met Admiral Enquist in the corridor of the governor's residence and tendered him a profound salutation.

The People Are Willing. St. Petersburg, June 5.—President Roosevelt's tender of his good offices to bring about peace is received with general favor in the press and by the public, and a desire that some steps should be taken toward securing an honorable peace is increasingly manifest.

He's Safe in Japan. Tokio, June 5.—Rear Admiral Negatoff is not likely to sign his parole.

JAPANESE POLITENESS

Head of Victorious Navy Sends Greeting to Rojostvensky.

Tokio, June 5.—Admiral Yamamoto, minister of the navy, has dispatched flowers for the room of Rear Admiral Rojostvensky. Accompanying the flowers was a letter to the wounded Russian officer, saying: "I beg to express my respect for you in discharging your duty like a soldier in fighting desperately for the sake of your fatherland. I cannot refrain from sympathizing with you in your wounded condition and hope the accommodations of our hospitals and ability of our naval surgeons will ease your suffering and speedily restore your health."

Admiral Yamamoto also sent a general letter to the wounded Russian officers and men, expressing the hope that their sufferings would soon be ended and that they would speedily recover.

Togo Calls on Rojostvensky.

Tokio, June 5.—Vice Admiral Togo visited Vice Admiral Rojostvensky at the naval hospital at Sasebo Saturday and expressed his sympathy for the admiral's wounds. He praised the desperately courageous fight of the Russians and expressed the hope that Vice Admiral Rojostvensky would soon be able to return to Russia. Rojostvensky was deeply moved by the admiral's words and thanked him. He congratulated Japan on the courage and patriotism of her sailors, and said it lessened his regret and the sorrow of defeat to know the high character of the victors.

WILL CONCEDE NOTHING

Both Sides in Chicago Strike Remain Stubborn.

Chicago, June 5.—An adjustment of the teamsters' strike by mediation seems as remote today as it did two months ago. Peace negotiations begun last week which promised to bring about an amicable adjustment of the difficulty, have been abandoned for the present at least, and the strike will be allowed to take its natural course, according to President Shea of the teamsters' organization. A natural course means one of two things, either a spread of the strike or defeat for the union, as all the business firms now involved in the trouble absolutely refuse to concede anything further in the controversy to bring about a settlement.

Accused Murderers Under Guard.

Jackson, Ky., June 5.—James and Alex Hargis and B. F. French were brought here by the sheriff of Clark county, under warrant of the police judge here, charging them with the murder of J. B. Marcum. By agreement with the county attorney, a guard was put over them and they were allowed to roam around town. Ed Callahan had previously surrendered on the same charge and been put under $5,000 bond to answer indictments that may be brought against him.

TREPOFF IS DICTATOR

Government of St. Petersburg Practically Turned Over to the Whims of Stern Governor General.

The Latter Is Given the Right to Close Assemblies and to Suspend All Societies.

St. Petersburg, June 5.—The Russian government has shown that it has not weakened in this hour of disaster. Instead of yielding to the stormy demands which the radicals hoped Admiral Rojostvensky's defeat would force the government to grant, the emperor issued a ukase Sunday conferring greatly increased powers on Governor General Trepoff, making him assistant minister of the interior in place of Major General Rydzefsky, who is made a senator, also chief of the department of police, and commander of the corps of the gendarmes.

General Trepoff is given the right by the ukase to close all assemblies and congresses, to suspend indefinitely all societies, leagues and other bodies manifesting pernicious activity, and to take all other steps necessary to preserve order so as to prevent interference with the established regime and to suppress the revolutionary propaganda.

This ukase, which entrusts dictatorial powers to the head of the imperial police to control the agitation now almost peremptorily demanding a constitution, representative government, and the surrender of the vital principles of the autocracy, and to put down the disorders with which the revolutionaries are threatening the country, makes him responsible to the emperor.

Talked About Peace.

Washington, June 5.—Baron Speck Von Sternberg, the German ambassador, spent two hours in conference with President Roosevelt at the White House last night. There is every reason to believe that much of the time was occupied with a discussion of the general question of war between Russia and Japan and the possibility of peace. The ambassador in response to a direct question regarding the prospect of peace, said that, so far as he knew, there had been no progress in that direction in the past twenty-four hours.

Created a Riot.

St. Petersburg, June 5.—Many persons were injured, and it is reported that some were killed, during a panic in a concert hall at Pavlovsk, near Tsarskoe Selo, Sunday, following the appearance of police to quell an uproar arising from the non-compliance of the orchestra with a popular demand that it play a funeral march in honor of the victims of the naval disaster in the sea of Japan.

Situation at Vladivostok.

Vladivostok, June 5.—It is expected here that a Japanese attack on the fortress will not be long delayed. There is, however, a calm and determined spirit manifested by the population in face of the forthcoming crisis. The defenses of Vladivostok on which steady work has been in progress since the beginning of the war, are now considered as having been completed.

Word From the Front.

Tokio, June 5.—Lieutenant General Linevitch is believed to be at Kungchuan (eight miles west of Fokoman) with his main force, his advance guard occupying the Fengswa and Itsungchu line.

Danger at Vladivostok.

St. Petersburg, June 5.—A dispatch received here says that all non-combatants have been ordered to leave Vladivostok.

Much Damage by Cloudburst.

Bellevue, O., June 5.—A cloudburst here last night caused thousands of dollars of property damage. Many buildings were washed away. No loss of life is reported.

BARNARD-TAYLOR NUPTIALS.

The "Month of Roses" Ushered in by a Pretty Wedding at Manila.

The marriage of Mr. Marshall Swain Barnard and Miss Lillian Pearl Taylor took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Taylor, of Manila, at 8 o'clock, Thursday evening, June 1st, 1905. Rev. G. W. Proctor, of the M. E. church, pronounced the solemn words that made the contracting parties man and wife in the presence of about one hundred friends and relatives, who had responded to the numerous invitations issued.

The bridal party marched down the beautifully decorated stairway to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, to the front parlor, where, standing under a wedding bell of smilax and roses, the beautiful ring ceremony was performed uniting this popular young couple. During the ceremony, Miss Vivian Barnard, at the piano, played in graceful style, "Hearts and Flowers."

The bride and groom were preceded by Miss Ruth Taylor and Master Fred Shelton, as ribbon bearers, little Helen Taylor, the sweet little niece of the bride, as flower girl, Miss Bernetta Taylor, sister of the bride, as maid of honor and Mr. Roy Barnard, brother of the groom as best man. The bridal gown was of silk mul and the bride carried American Beauty roses. The groom wore the conventional black.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Taylor, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Elmore Barnard, of Posey township. The happy couple was well remembered by their host of friends with a large number of beautiful presents.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party led the way to the dining room, where ice cream, cake and coffee were served. The color scheme was pink and white, being artistically arranged and pleasing. Punch was served by Miss Blanche Fox, and the souvenirs of small wedding bells were given out by Miss Jessie Whisman.

Mrs. C. M. Taylor, assisted by Mrs. Rose Trees, received the guests in a very informal manner.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnard, to the disappointment of their best friends, who were over-anxious to give them a hearty send off with rice, etc., succeeded, by some mysterious way, in making their escape, and left for Chicago, where they will spend their honeymoon. They will be at home to their friends at Franklin, Ind., after July 1st, where Mr. Barnard is employed by the Pennsylvania railroad.

The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Taylor, Jonesville, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Stanton, Greenwood, Ind.; Mrs. A. J. Champion, Madison, Ind.; Miss Mayme Champion, Rushville, Ind.; Mrs. Emma Taylor Williams, Sellersburg, Ind.; Mrs. Nina Taylor McClure, Sellersburg, Ind.; Mr. Walter Gleason, Waldron, Ind.; Mr. Warren Young, Edinburg, Ind.

Charles Robinson, the contractor, who was suddenly taken ill yesterday at his home on West Fifth street, is some better today.

The Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company is beautifying the lawns at its station on the corner of Morgan and Third streets by the addition of some pretty flower beds.
